Poetry.

Autumn.

BY ROSETTE A. ROSE,

The Summer, with its golden crown
Of beauty, rich, and bright, and rare,
Has passed away, and left behind
A charm that it could never wear;
A charm that fills our wondering souls
With some mysterious, dreamy spell.
That seems to mingle earth with heaven
And bring us near where angels dwell.

O! that the muses would be kind,
And give me power to express
The glowry of the Autumn time,
And all its tender lovliness;
The azure haze that veils the sky,
And wanders through the golden air,
Seems like a dream from heaven sent
To win our wandering spirits there.

O! may the future of my days
Bring me Autumn as divine,
When through the mist of age's cares
The golden light of heaven shall shine
Who, looking back on deeds well done,
And looking up for bliss to come,
I'll dream away the Autumn days
Until my Master calls me home.

Selected Story.

How Marion Won.

"Of all the things this is the worst! If I ever in all my life expected to hear such news! Why, our George has gone and got married! Do you hear?"

Good Mrs. Clements pushed her steel-bowed spectacles off her bright eyes, and dropped her letter in her lap, as she turned round to her husband, the stout, clever old farmer, who was contentedly stroking the old white cat.

"Deacon, d'ye hear?"

This time, when she asked the question, there was a touch of sharpness in her voice.

"Yes, what if he is married? I'm sure it's natural enough. It kind o' runs in the family 'pears to me."

But Mrs. Clements would take no notice of the little pleasantry.

"Well, if you like it I can tell you I don't. He need'n think he's coming here, with his fine city bred lady, all airs and graces, and flounces and ruffles. There's plenty of good girls hereabout that wanted him. Right in the middle of hog-killing time too! talk of bringing a lady here in hog killing time! I do declare I think George is a fool."

* * * *

A graceful, dainty little lady, in a garnet poplin and ruffled apron, with a small proudly poised head, covered with short, dusky curls, and a pair of dark blue eyes, so wistful and tender, a tiny rose-bud of a mouth, and a dimple in one pink cheek.

That was Mrs. Marion Clements. Was it any wonder that George had fallen in love with her?

She sat in the parlor, close beside the lace curtained window, watching for the loved husband's return; and then, when she heard the click of the latch key in the hall, flew for the welcome kiss.

"Haven't you got the letter this time, George! I've felt sure of it all day. Indeed, I've quite decided what dresses to take with me."

He smiled and shook his head.

A cloud passed over her pretty face.

"O, George, isn't it too bad? And I do believe—oh! I do believe they won't write because they are sorry you married me."

He put his arm around her neck.

"And supposing such to be the case, do you suppose it would make any difference to me?"

"Oh! no, no, only it would grieve me so if I had alienated your parents from you."

"And a one sided alienation it would be too! They have never seen you! And when they know you they can't help loving you."

"O, George!"

And the exclamation was caused by the kiss accompanying his loving flattery.

"That's true as preaching. By-the-by my dear, what would you say if the firm sent me on a traveling tour of six weeks?"

A little dismayed cry answered him.

"You won't stay here alone, eh? But, Marion, it would be five hundred dollars clear gain to us."

What need we care for money? I'd rather have you."

A mischievous smile plaid on the young man's lips, he was more matter of fact than this romantic little wife of his.

"I think the addition to our balance at the banker's would be very consoling for the absence. But never mind, little pet. Let's go down to dinner I hope well get a letter from home soon."

And soon it was; Marion snatched it from his coat pocket the very next night. But her husband's face looked very grave and stern, and his eyes looked angry when she looked gleefully over the envelope.

"My dear, you must remember I care very little for what the letter contains. Remember, I did not write it; that you are dearer to me than ever before. Kiss me first, while I watch you."

A little pang of misdoubt troubled her when she glanced over the note; then tears stole from under her lashes, and George saw her mouth quiver and tremble; then, when she had finished it, she laid her head on his shoulder and cried.

"It was cruel to let you see it, my wounded birdie. Let me burn it. And don't forget darling, what the Bible says, that a man shall leave father and mother and cleave to his wife, Marion, and to you I turn for all the happiness my life will ever hold."

He dried her tears and then they talked it over.

"Just because I am city-bred, she thinks I am lazy, and haughty, and dainty, and——"

"Never mind, Marion she will find out some day. My father——"

"Yes, bless the dear old man! He has added: 'My love to my daughter Marion.' Oh, I know I should love him, and your mother, too, if she would let me."

"We will invite them down when I come home; By the way, Marion, I will stop at the farm on my way home, and invite them down, and bring them home with me."

"George, dear, I have been thinking about that trip West. I think you had better go, and leave me at home. It won't be so very long."

Marion was eating her egg while she spoke across the cozy little tete-a-tete breakfast table.

"Spoken like my true little Marion, and when I come back I'll bring you a present. What shall it be?"

"Your mother and father from the farm. It shall be that hope that will bear me company while you are gone."

A fortnight after that Marion Clements ate her breakfast alone, the traces of a tear or so on her pink cheek; then she dashed them away with a merry joyous little laugh.

"This will never do, and now that George has gone for six weeks, to prepare for his return. And I pray heaven it is such a coming as shall delight his very soul."

* * * *

"I'm sure I don't know what to say. The land knows I need help bad enough, but 'pears to me a slender little midget like you couldn't earn your salt. What did you say your name was?"

"Mary Smith." And indeed if you will try me for a week, I am sure you'll keep me, till the season's over."

Mrs. Clements looked out of the window at the great clouds that were piling gloomily up; and then the wind gave a great wailing shrieke around the corners of the house.

"You can cook, can you? or shake up feather beds—good big ones, forty pounders."

A gleeful little laugh came from Mary's lips.

"Indeed I can. I may not cook to suit you, but I can learn."

Mrs. Clements walked out to the huge open fireplace in the kitchen where the deacon was shelling corn.

"What d'ye say deacon; keep her or not? I kind o' like her looks, and the dear knows it 'ed be a good lift while we're killin', if she couldn't do more'n set the table or make mush for the bread."

"Take her of course Hannah. You are hard driv' I know. Let her stop a week or so anyhow."

So Mrs. Clements came slowly back and sat down again.

"You can't get away to night, anyhow; there's a snow-storm been brewin' these three days, and it is on us now, sure enough. See them 'ere flakes fine and thick. You may as well take your things up stairs to the west garret, and then come down and help me to get supper."

Then followed the directions to the west garret; and when she was gone, Mrs. Clements turned to the deacon—"I never saw a girl before I'd trust up stairs alone. But such as she don't steal, can tell you that if nothing else."

Directly she came down in a purple print dress and white apron; her hair brushed off from her face into a net; a narrow linen colar, fastened with a sailors loop of narrow black ribon. It seemed as if she had lift, too, so handily she fitted in and out of the big pantry and then down the cellar. Then after the meal, she gathered the dishes in a neat, silent way, that was perfect bliss to Mrs. Clements ear.

"She's determined to earn her bread anyhow; and I like her turn too."

And all her mother love rushing to her heart, she hurried out to meet him. Oh, the welcoming, the reproaches, the caresses, the determination to love him still, despite poor innocent little Marion! Then when the table had been set in the next room by Mary's deft fingers, and she had returned to her "west garret," Mrs. Clements opened her heart.

"There's no use talkin', George; this fine, fancy lady o' yours 'll never suit me. Give me a smart gal like Mary Smith, and I'll ask no more. Come in to supper now. Mary, Mary."

She raised her voice to call the girl, when a low voice near surprised her.

"Oh, you dressed up in honor o' my boy. Well, I must confess I never knew you had such a handsome dress, and you look like a picture with your cap off, and them short, bobbin' curls." George, this is Mary Smith, my——"

George came through the door and glanced carelessly at the corner where the young woman stood. Then, with a cry sprang with outstretched arms to meet the little figure that sprang into them. The deacon and Mrs. Clements stood in speechless amazement. Then Marion, all blushes and tearful smiles, went over to the old pair and took their hands.

"I am George's wife. I was so afraid you would never love me, so I came determined to win you if I could. Mother, father, may I be your daughter?"

And a happier family, when they had exhausted their powers of surprise, and amazement, and pride in the beautiful Marion, never gave thanks over a supper table.

Here and There A Gem

The baby wept;
The mother took it from the nurse's arms,
And soothed its griefs and stilled its vain alarms
And baby slept.

Again it wept,
And God doth take it from the mother's arms
From present and future unknown harms;
And baby sleeps!

First Love.

People talk so much about young love first love being so strong, &c. Just as if there was any difference between first and last love. It is my opinion last love is just as sweet and strong as first love. Love will be love, and you can't make anything else out of it. A man of thirty, or even forty, loves just as much as one of twenty; more, for his feelings are stronger, and he would place his love on a firmer basis. The heart has its changes and seasons as everything else has; none, however, says a writer, "which resembles its first freshness and purity." Perhaps that is so, but where the freshness is lost is a second love there are strength and truth gained. less romance, but a more solid ground-work for a life's happiness.

There is more of the ideal about first love no doubt, but by the time you experience a second love you become more rational. Every year we live, more wisdom will have mingled in our dream of love until it becomes less unselfish and more reasonable. First love is two-thirds anyway. I know a dark-eyed girl who thinks she is passing through the ordeal of first love now; but in a few years she will look back at this love and laugh.

I often hear girls express great horror at the idea of being a second wife, for they fear they should not be loved so well as the first. That is wrong; second love is often stronger, if anything in its newly-awakened bliss than the first. The birds always sing sweeter, the trees wave a richer foliage, roses are more beautiful, the air is fresher, when we are in love, no matter if it be a first, second, or third experience.—By a Young Lady.

The Ladie's Repentance.

On our way from Wem to Hawkstone we passed a house, of which Mr. Lee told me the following occurrance:—"A young lady, the daughter of the owner, was addressed by a man who, though agreeable to her, was disliked by her father. Of course, he would not consent to their union, and she determined to elope. The night was fixed, the hour came, he placed the ladder to the window, and in a few minutes she was in his arms. They mounted a double horse, and were soon at some distance from the house. After a while the lady broke silence by saying: 'Well you see what a proof I have given you of my affection; I hope you will make me a good husband.' He was a surley fellow, and gruffly answered: 'Perhaps I may, and perhaps not!' She made no reply; but after a silence of some minutes she suddenly exclaimed: 'O, what shall we do? I have left my money behind me in my room,' 'Then said he, 'we must go back and fetch it.' They were soon again at the house, the ladder was placed, the lady mounted while the ill natured lover waited below. But she delayed to come, and so he gently called, 'Are you coming?' when she looked out of the window and said: 'Perhaps I may, and perhaps not;' and then shut down the window, and left him to return upon the double horse alone."

The South Carolina railroad shops in Charleston, having just completed several first class locomotives, and advertised their intention of competing in that kind of work with the northern manufacturers, St. Louis now wants to try its hand at the business.

"Hall, Wedden Love"—Milton.

You know her. She lives on your street. Her features are either pinched or full and frowsy. Her dress is wet, ill fitting, and of no particular pattern; her hair is uncombed; her voice is either shrill or coarse. You have seen her stand out in the back yard, and put a bare arm up to her eyes, and under it peer out to the fence or barn, where a man in an ill fitting coat is searching for something, and have heard her shout: "John, can't George bring me some water?" And you have heard him cry "If he don't get that water I will take every inch of flesh from his bones!" And when you have looked at her again does it seem possible that those angry eyes have dropped in maidenly reserve or been raised in coquetish light to the face of the man in the ill-fitting coat? Can you, by any possible wrench of the imagination of his tenderly pressing peppermints to her; of his taking that hand in his and bashfully squeezing it?" But it was so. Many a "God bless you" has been uttered above that head; many a kiss pressed on that uncombed hair. The tightly compressed lips have lovingly framed tender invitations to him to take another bite of cake or pickle. The hands that are now parboiled and blustered and marked with scars from the breadknife and scratches from the last setting hen, when once twined lovingly around his neck, and the note, which is now peaked and red, and looks as if it would stand on it's hind legs and scream with rage, once followed the figures of his new vest pattern, or bore heavily against his jugular vein. As little probable as this seems to you, it seems less to her. She has forgotten it. She won't hear it talked of by others. And—but George is rubbing his hand, and turns aside while our heroine readjusts her slipper.—Danbury News.

PROGRESS AND IMPROVENENT—THE RAILROAD.

We think it was ADDISON who said that the only sure escape from opposition and calumny was utter obscurity and inactivity. Suppose the great pioneers of progress and invention and thought had cowardly succumbed where would the world have been to-day? It has ever been the lot of those who have made themselves active in behalf of human progress—who have championed enterprizes requiring them to take position outside the ruts of common thought and action, and confront the avarice, bigotry, ignorance or ambition of individuals to meet with opposition and abuse. From the days of GALLILEO down it has ever been so. The sanity of the first steamboat builder was questioned by every flat bottman on the Hudson, and when the great and intrepid MORSE prayed Congress for a little aid to test his telegraphic theory, many socalled honorable gentlemen denounced him as an imposter or scored at the fantastic idea of employing lightning to carry the mails!

Ave, we repeat that it has ever been

Now enterprizes are scoffed at by individuals & persistently opposed by every suspecting inventor, while enterprizing men, of forecast and executive capacity, are denounced as visionary schemers by the incompetent, slow plodders of society.

There in these Sound counties of East-ern North Carolina we have a magnificent country, one whose soil is naturally fertile and productive and with a climate unsurpassed in the United States. They have been settled, some of them, almost a century. And yet for twenty years they have made no progress—have really retrograded. A few earnest spirits not satisfied that this condition of things should continue, and earnestly desiring to keep pace with other sections less blessed by the bountiful hand of Providence, agitated the inagurration and completion of the public improvements that have made other sections so marvelously prosperous. The great agency that has achieved so much for the North and the West and the West is the RAILROAD. What it has done for these it can and will do for us.

Alone and of ourselves we are too poor—are unable to construct railroads. Is this any reason why we should be without one? We have taken the position that it is not; that if we do as we can and what we can a railroad, just where we need and want it, will be built before the close of another year. Railroad men and capitalists from abroad, having carefully examined this whole country and studied its wonderful resources and boundless possibilities have ordered, on certain conditions, to construct complete and equip a railroad, and to do it at once. What are those conditions? Simply that the people in these counties manifest enough interest in the enterprize by taking a small portion of the capital stock of the Company. Nor do they ask that these subscriptions be paid in advance. They only ask that we pay the dollars when and as fast as they spend four times two. This is fair, indeed it is liberal. The counties of Pasquotank, Perquimans and Chowan are nobly responded and complied with the conditions.

One county from which a subscription has been asked has thus far held back, I mean the county of Camden. Will she continue to stand in the way? Will she be a stumbling block opposing this great enterprize? We hope not. Her commissioners have submitted the question to be decided at the ballot box on the first Thursday of December. The question is to subscribe Twenty Thousand Dollars to the capital stock of the Atlantic Coast Railway Company, on condition that said Company build the proposed road. Let it be carried by a divided majority and then, when the road is completed and the county begins to reap the advantages and blessings that invariably follow, not only will the men who championed the measure be fully vindicated, but the people will rejoice that they turned a deaf ear to the counsel urged upon them by the opponents of progress and cast their ballots in favor of the railroad.

It is an admitted fact that when the panic occured the country was in a remarkably prosperous condition. The crops were abundant, manufacturers were unable to supply the demands made upon them, and railways were overburdened with freight waiting for transportation. The panic has not curtailed the crops; the railroads and canals are ready to transport them and the country really needs all the fabrics the manufactories can furnish. Let all act wisely and keep up their courage and soon the normal condition will be resumed.

During this month between $700,000 and $800,000 in silver of various denominations will be coined at the Philadelphia Mint.

THE BENEFACTORS OF HUMANITY.

We sometimes hear the narrow minded sneeringly decry the efforts made by men of enterprize and charge "they seek to enrich themselves." Suppose it be true, does that make the motive a bad one? While a public spirited man enriches himself by increasing ten fold the value of certain properties, does he not necessarially add to the wealth of others? When ABOTT LAWRENCE built his first great Cotton Mills he sought wealth, and while attaining it he brought opulence to thousands of others.

Well, suppose a railroad is built through our counties. Of course capitalists will not make the venture unless they expect to make money. This motive enters into all great undertakings. But when they make money for themselves they must make some for us. If along their line they increase the value of land, for instance, from three to ten fold it is as clear as the nose on a man's face that adjoining land owners must be proportionately benefited.

We hold that these men who, by their enterprizing vocations turn wild streams into mill powers, barren acres into village lots, securing work to the laborer and money to the pennyless, deserve enrichment, and their biographers will declare them the truest benefactors of humanity.

The American Steamer Virginius was captured by the Spanish gun-boat Tornado near the coast of Jamaica on the 31 ult, with 170 passengers and crew, and a cargo. Five of the prisoners, among them Gen. W. C. RYAN an American were tried at Santiago de Cuba as pirates and summarily shot The plain facts of the case, so far as is at present known, are that the Virginius was, at the time of her capture, sailing under a United States registry and that her papers had previously and repeatedly been pronounced regular by United States naval officers and consuls. The pleas in justification of the capture will doubtless be that she was first sighted in Spanish waters, engaged in piratical acts, and was overtaken before she could get near enough to Jamaica to claim British protection. But there is no possible justification for the summary execution of the five prisoners.

——Since the above was written we have further news. Over 100 more of the crew have been executed, and more have been condemned to death. This brutal act is causing great exctement and feeling all over the country. Public indigation meetings are being held in all the large cities.

UDDERZOOK, who was tried in Pennsylvania on the charge of murdering GOSS was found guilty of murder in the first degree. The theory of the persecution was these two, being brothers in law; entered into a conspiracy to defraud certain insurance officers of $25,000, that being the gross amount of the policies on Goss' life. Goss's laboratory, prepared for the occasion was burned down and a body, charred beyond satisfactory recognition, was found in the ruins. The insurance companies, suspecting fraud, discovered that Goss was alive and in hiding. While they were on his trail, a horrible murder was discovered near Jennerville, Penn, and UDDERZOOK was arrested for the crime. Investigation seems to have proved that the murdered man was Goss, who had been done to death by UDDERZOOK in order that the original conspiracy, by which he was to gain some part of the insurance, might be carried out. The body in the burned laboratory at Pentonville was probably procured from a graveyard.

Too much sweet cider is what ails many boys in the country about these times. When a boy gets a straw into the bung-hole of a barrel of newly made cider he never gauges his drink or troubles himself about the consequences. Who has not been there?—Conandaigua (N. Y.) Rep.

We have been there in the "days that are gone," and so has a cotemporary of ours, but he says he invariably found that the "old man" followed pretty close after him, and that he never used a "straw" but generally wielded a barrel stave or a lath, and didn't apply them to the bung hole of the barrel either. Oh, but those were the days, "sure enough."

If three hundred and fifty-six millions of currency were necessary for the nations uses ten years ago, as Congress declared in 1863, certainly a much larger amount is necessary now when business of all sorts is so much more extended. It seems to us very clear that common sense ought to teach any man that it is impossible to carry on to a successful conclusion the present enterprizes of the country with a less amount of real capital than it had ten years ago when war had destroyed our commerce and industries. It is not less money that is wanted, but more.

The Georgia people want to tax pistols a dollar a piece.—Ex.

The idea is a good one, but the figures too low.

Letters from Norfolk. No. I.

NORFOLK, VA., }
November 13th, 1873. }

To the Editor of the North Carolinian:

Notwithstanding the panic and the pressure Norfolk holds her own most gallantly. The banks and merchants have done nobly and the sound condition of affairs here is shown by the fact that we have had no failures. Itelaw, a professional Collector, representing a public improvement, just now who told me that to-day he had collected $3000 which was pretty good work for one day in times like these.

The Virginia Medical Society is now in session, and we have a fine array of talent. Among the delegates there are two gentlemen from your State, Dr. J. F. Summerell, of Salisbury, and Dr. George A. Foote, of Warrenton. These gentlemen were received with great cordiality and addressed the Convention. Yesterday they were called on for a special expression of opinion on the subject of a State Examining Board for all practioners. Dr. Foote lead off in a very lucid statement of the North Carolina system and was followed by his colegaue Dr. Summerell, and the impression made by them was very fine. To-day the Medical Society went over by invitation to the Navy Yard and were handsomely entertained by Surgeon Bates, U. S. N.

Norfolk has just had her steam transportation increased by the addition of two new steam enterprizes one to Richmond and another to New York. Lorillard, the millionaire, is the founder of these lines and Col. Wm. Lamb, of Fort Fisher celebrity is the Agent. As far we can see there are chances for trouble with Spain as an Iron Clad and a Steam Frigate are fitting for sea at the Navy Yard as fast as possible. Of their movements I will keep you informed.

Nov. 9th, A. D., 1873, A. L. 5873. }

WHEREAS it has pleased our Heavenly Father to take from this state of existence our deceased brother George W. Smith, with whom we have had much pleasant, social and masonic intercourse for a long period of time, and to whom we were sincerely attached for his many virtues, therefore,

Resolved, That as a token of our respect for the memory of our deceased brother we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That we tender the family and relatives of our deceased brother our heart felt sympathy in this dispensation of Providence by which they are so sorely distressed, and we pray our Heavenly Father to give them grace and fortitude to bear this chastisement with christian meekness and resignation.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered on the records of the Lodge; that a copy be handed to the widow of our deceased brother, and that a copy be sent to the Editor of the NORTH CAROLINIAN with a request that he publish the same.

North Carolina Treasury Troubles.

RALEIGH, Nov. 13.—In 1871 the Treasurer of the State, under authority of the Legislature, appropriated to the general purposes of the government, $241,878,67, that had been collected to pay the interest on the bonds known as special tax bonds. To-day four bills in equity were filed in the United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina, praying that the public Treasurer be enjoined from paying any money out of the treasury until he has first replaced the above sum to the credit of the fund for which the same was collected, for the purpose of providing for the payment of the interest on the bonds held by the plaintiff and all other holders who may become parties to these suits. A preliminary injunction was granted by Judge Bond, and Nov 28 was set for the hearing of the motion for a special injunction. While there is a growing disposition on the part of the people and the press to recognize the old debt of the State, the people are fixed in their determination to resist by all lawful means the payment of these special tax bonds. When these are disposed of steps will undoubtedly be taken to compromise the old debt upon a basis acceptable to the State and the bondholders.

WANTED TO BE HEARD FROM.

If anybody has ever used the thorough and scientific course of treatment recommended by the proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy for the cure of Catarrh and has not been perfectly cured, the proprietor, Dr. R. V. Pierce, would like to hear from the parson, and by addressing him at the World's Dispensary Buffalo, N. Y., such person, if there be one, will hear of something to his or her advantage, as the Doctor is in earnest when he offers $500 reward for a case of Catarrh which he cannot cure, and is perfectly able to pay it if he fails in a single case, as any one may ascertain upon enquiry. The thorough course of treatment referred to and recomended by Dr. Pierce consists in the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh remedy with Dr. Pierce's Nasal Douche which is the only means by which the fluid can be carried high up and applied to all of the nasal passages and the chambers connected therewith in which ulcers exist and from which the discharge proceeds. In addition to this though application of the Remedy, which should always be used warm, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery should be taken earnestly as constitutional treatment, without which few cases can be cured as the disease is always costitutional and must be treated accordingly. This treatment has no unpleasant features about it, and has the advantage of never driving the diseas to the lungs as there is danger of doing by the use of strong, irritating snuffs or poisonous solutions.

PLAIN FACTS.

Frankfort, Mich., Sept, 13th, 1873.

A yearago I had a bad cough from the Catarrh which had got in my throat. I tried a good many things but got nothing to do me any good until I used your Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. They cured me in three months for which I am very thankful. AMOS FISHER.

FOUND AT LAST!—A remedy that not only relieves, but cures that enemy of mankind, Consumption, as well as the numerous satellites which revolve around it in the shape of coughs, colds, bronchitis, sore throat, influenza, &c. The remedy we allude to is Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, prepared by Seth W. Fowle & Sons, Boston.

We see by the Georgia papers that Miss Agnes Lacy, of Raleigh, received a handsome silver pitcher for the best crayon drawing. All the drawings and paintings sent by the Peace institute are highly commended. The institution is second to none in the South.

The widow of the late Hon. Samuel Kimball, a former resident Jackson, Mich., has, in connection with her son-in-law, a London architect, taken a contract to do building for the Turkish government amounting to upward of $700,000

The Most Popular Medicine Extant.

1840. Over 40 Years, 1873.

Since the Introduction of
PERRY DAVIS'

PAIN-KILLER.

And after thirty years' trial, the "PAIN KILLER" may justly be styled the great medicine of the world, for there is no religion of the globe into which it has not found its way, and none where it has not been largely and highly prized. Moreover, ther is no climate to which it has not proved to be well adapted for the cure of considerable variety of diseases; it is admirably suited for every race it has lost none of its good name by repeated trials, but continues to occupy a prominent position in every medicine chest; and is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials to its virtues, from persons of the highest character and respo sibility. Physicians of the first respectibility recommend it as a most effectual preparation for the extinction of pain. It is not only the best remedy ever known for Bruises, Cuts, Burns, &c., but for Dysentery or Cholera, or any sort of bowel complaint, it is a remedy unsurpassed for efficiency and rapidity of action. In the great cities of India and other hot climates, it has become the Standard Medicine for all such complaints, as well as for Dysentery, Liver Complaints, and other kindred disorders. For Coughs and Colds, Canker, Asthma, and Rheumatic difficulties, it has been proved by the most abundant and convincing testimony to be an invaluable medicine. No article ever attained such unbounded popularity. As an external and internal medicine, the Pain-Killer stands unrivaled.

Thirty Years are certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicind, and that the PAIN-KILLER is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparelled popularity it has attained. It is a sure and Effective remedy. It is sold in almost every country in the world, and is becoming more and more popular every year. Its healing properties have been fully tested, all over the world, and it needs only to be known to be prized. Be sure you buy none but the genuine, manufactured by PERRY DAVIS & SON, Providence, R. I.

Sold by all Druggists. Nov. 5-1m.

Questions to be Considered in Buying a Machine.

What are the desirable features of a Family Sewing Machine?

It must be simple in construction, that it may be easily learned, and not liable to get out of order; silent in its operation—rapid in the execution of work—easily changed from one kind of work to another—capable of doing every variety of work—must run easy, so as not to fatigue the operator, and with all these, must be durable.

What Machine posseses these qualification in the highest degree

Agents Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine:

GENTS.—I have had in my family for some time an improved Wheeler & Wilson Machine, and am confident it is the best family Sewing Machine in use; for several reasons, viz: It runs lighter, makes less noise; is more durable and does a greater variety of work with no trouble to apply the attachments.

M. B. CULPEPPER.

E. City, N. C., Nov. 8th, 1873.

Affidavit of N. B. Stoops.—I have visited all the principal Sewing Machine manufactories, and have had the best facilities for finding out not only what was the best, but why it was best. Wheeler & Wilson is the simplest in parts, the most direct, quiet and rapid in action of any two-thread Machines. Other Machines cannot keep up with it. I now sell all kinds and ten of them to one of any other. Others come back for exchange, with many murmurs and complaints. These never once sold they are gone; as an article of merchandise, they are always saleable. Richmond, Va., June 23, 1871.

Battleboro, N. C. Aug., 8, 1871.

Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like my Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, I would state that it gives entire satisfaction. And the longer I use it, the more I am pleased with it. I prefer it to all others, for the following reasons; It runs so lightly that it produces no fatigue to operate it, and makes so little noise that it can scarcely be head across the room. It makes a beautiful lock stich, which is alike on both sides of the frabic sewed, and which is not only a great saving in thread, but will not ravel out like the work done on chain stitch Machines. It is simple and easy to manage, and is adapted for all kinds of family sewing. It has no equal.

Respectfully, Miss E. R. POOL.

Dinwiddie Co., Va., August 14, 1871.

I have owned a Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine for 18 years and I have done the fine-i, as well as the heaviest work upon it. For 3 years during the war, a colored girl in my employ made soldiers' clothing upon it. It is still in good order, and has never cost me but 25 cents for repairs. If I had to purchase another Machine, I would have none but a Wheeler & Wilson. Mrs. WM. P. DAVIS.

This is to certify that this Machine, No. 5,230, is the same one that we purchased in the year 1856, and have been using ever since until the present time, when we have exchange it for a new one. JULIA S. SELDEN.

KATHAIRON

Only 50 Cents per Bottle.

It promotes the GROWTH, PRESERVES the COLOR, and increases the Vigor and BEAUTY of the HAIR.

OVER THIRTY YEARS AGO LYON'S KATHAIRON FOR THE HAIR was first placed in the Market by Professor E. Thomas Lyon, a graduate of Princeton College. The name is derived from the Greek, "KATHRO," signifying to cleanse, purify, rejuvenate, or restore. The favor it has received, and the popularity it has obtained, is unprecedented and incredible. It increases the GROWTH and BEAUTY of the HAIR. It is a delightful dressing. It eradicates Dandruff. It prevents the Hair from turning gray. It keeps the head cool, and gives the hair a rich, soft, glossy appearance. It is the same in QUALITY and QUALITY as it was over a QUARTER of a CENTURY AGO, and is sold by all Druggists and Country Stores at only Fifty Cents per Bottle.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

After this date I shall sell for CASH.

I have made this change because I can no longer afford to sell on credit. I must sell for CASH because I can only buy for cash. I must sell for cash because parties who have had my goods will not pay. I must sell for cash because it is too much trouble to collect bad accounts. In making this change I am well aware that my sales will be curtailed; but I prefer to sell less and not be continually harrassed with an inability to collect accounts to meet indebtedness. I have tried plainly to explain my reasons for adopting the Cash system. Some of my customers pay well others do not, I cannot afford to carry the bad to save the good, as a whole I must discard all or accept all the conclusion is plain. I am engaged exclusively in the Drug Trade. I shall endeavor to keep a first-class Drug Store. I shall spare no pains to make it such, keeping pace with every modern improvement. I shall mark goods lower and shall use my best efforts to please. I shall endeavor to supply my customers with any goods not on hand in the shortest time possible. I am anxious to please and to sell you, but please remember I sell for C

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

We call attention to the following new advertisement in this issue.

Local and Personal.

Judge ALBERTSON is holding Court at Edenton this week.

"A lately discovered Parable, with a Supplement" will appear next week.

The latest quotations from New York are: Gold 107; Silver 101; Cotton 15c. Corn, old 70 to 74c. new 60 to 65c.

There is quite a demand for houses in this city. We hear of a number who desire to rent, but there are no vacant houses for them. More are needed.

We have made arrangements with a able and accomplished gentleman at Norfolk for regular weekly letters from "City on the Sea." The first one appears this week.

The "Duck shooting" season has commenced in Currituck. We learn that the marshes and islands of that famous sporting region are full of the delicious game.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine. We shall most probably have a word to say about these Machines in a future issue.

In reply to a correspondent we would state that we hold that railroads and canals are common carriers for the public, and that they are subject to such rules and regulations as the public safety and welfare may require.

In the published proceedings last week of the Town Commissioners the item of the Land & Lumber Company should have been $400 00. It was for Lumber furnished during the year of '71 & '72

There being a vacancy in this Congressional District at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, Hon. C. L. COBB gives notice that a Committee will sit at Edenton on the 30th of Dec. for the purpose of examining applicants for the position. See our advertising columns.

During a few days of the last week the weather was quite cold, even freezing ice in standing water. On Sunday it had got warm, and on Monday we had another rain, almost inclining one to exclaim with the Chicago poet in his apostrophe "Prodigious dampness!"

In our hurried "Notes of the Fair" last week we may have omitted a few articles on exhibition. If so, we assure the fair exhibitors that it was purely an oversight. Feeling grateful for the interest manifested we tried to give all a notice. We felt they were entitled to it.

The corn crop in the country is turning out better than was anticipated. But very few fields are a failure, and in most fields there is fully two thirds of a crop, and in many cases it is fully up to the average. Sweet potatoes are also coming in better than was expected, so that there will be a supply at reasonable prices.

The late Fair has had a good effect. The exhibitions and discussions have shaken up and waked up quite a number of our farmers and their wives and daughters, causing them to form new resolutions for the coming year. The different departments in which these are interested will be much better filled next year.

At last an order has been issued by the Post Office Department at Washington changing the time of the departure of the mail from this place to Currituck and Camden from Wednesday to Thursday. This will enable our friends and patrons in the above named counties to get their NORTH CAROLINIANS the same week published.

A railroad through this country is the now needed agency to complete the work of true progress and substantial development so auspiciously begun in these Sound counties of Eastern Carolina. It will prove the pioneer of enterprise, thrift and comfort. It will create business and give work to the poor, trade to the merchant, a market to the farmer and prosperity to our entire section.

The financial prospect has been blue, blue, and especially so with our farmers—those who confined their operations principally to cotton. They paid what are called "inflation prices" for provisions and labor to raise the crop and to be obliged to sell at what is now called the gold basis is simply ruin. Resumption of specie payment may all be very well; a return to the "gold basis" is very pretty in theory, but the present is the worst time possible for it in the South. The planter, to save himself must sell his crop at a price based upon what it cost to produce it.

The Post Office is a very reliable indication of the increase of the population and business in a town. The amount of matter delivered from the office here in any given month this year is largely in excess of the corresponding monthin 1870, when the last census was taken. We think it is no exageration to claim that the permanent population of Elizabeth City at the present time is at least one third larger than what it was then. If the Post Office is any criterion by which to judge, it certainly has made this increase.

A Western cotemporary has made a discovery which he thinks will rejoice young men to learn. It is a simple process by which tight boots may be drawn on easily. The patient lies down on the floor, and holds his feet straight up in the air until the blood runs out of them, thus diminishing the size of the foot, when it will slip into the boot as sleek as getting into a gutter on a dark night. To enjoy perfect immunity from pedal torture while the foot is thus encased, it is only necessary to remain in the position until ready to draw off the boots.

A slowly starring editor in Vermont—one who has been suffering from too many delinquent subscribers—has tried the effect of poetry as follows:

We had sweet dreams the other night,
When all around was still;
We dreamed we saw a host of folks
Pay up their printer's bill.
We wish the dream would come to pass,
And our empty pockets fill—
Tar dar umph to diddle dum,
Te iump to fiddle dill.

If an appeal like that don't bring out the stamps we do not know what will. We think delinquents would pay up in order to put a stop to such rhyme. If some who owe us "back pay" don't get a little more prompt we'll be forced to try a little "poetry" or something else on 'em.

LOCAL PORT-FOLIO

The latest Parlor game—the "Path to Matrimony." Criminal associations—hand cuffs. A bad habit to get into—a coat that isn't paid for. Just the reverse—when a clock is wound up it goes; but when a firm is wound up it stops. A hero—every man to the woman who loves him. A great mistake—to set up our standard of right and wrong and judge people accordingly.

LOCAL BRIEFS.—THOMAS GASKINS has opened a Confectionary store in Dr. BURT's old building on Road Street.—The Blue Fish season has "come again." But 50 cents apiece! how is that for high in "panic" times?—The weather last week was bracing, the roads were good, and our friends who have "fast nags" enjoyed their drives.—The Classical and Mathematical School of Prof. I. N. TILLETT at this place is filling up.—There are quite a number of famous horses in town this week.— BRODRICK & SMITH have finally got into their new store. It is the largest and best arranged mercantile establishment in Eastern Carolina. Go and see them.—The proceedings of the County Commissioners appear this week. Through oversight they were not handed in to us before.—The grandest trot of the season, if the day is fair, will come off on the Fair Ground Track to morrow.—For your bivalves go to Capt. LYONS.—Ho! for the Ball at the Albemarle House to-morrow evening.—Read the new advertisements this week.—Thursday of next week is Thanksgiving.—Our much esteemed townsman ASBERRY JOHNSON and lady celebrated the anniversary of their Silver Wedding last evening. A very pleasant party was present.

"Speaking of extravagance in dress" writes Capt. Crosstree, "the most expensively dressed man I ever saw was an African Chief on the Gold Coast. His wives had annointed him thoroughly with palm oil and then powdered him from head to foot with gold dust. You never saw in your life a man got up so "utterly regardless of expense."

The Agricultural Bureau reports the corn crop of the country as 16 per cent below that of last year in point of average yield, while there is a decrease of 4 per cent in the area. The falling off is estimated at 250,000,000 bushels. Notwithstanding which we have enough breadstuffs on hand to feed all the world and the rest of mankind.

The *Sotuhern*er says: Our farmers in this section have gathered and secured several hundred thousand pounds of hay, which give them feeling of independence. One old darkey has succeeded in gathering upwards of 15,000 pounds which he pulled with his hands. So much for home industry.

A little negro boy, Sam Purnell, living on the plantation of Mr. M. Purnell, about eight miles from Weldon was crushed to death in the running gear of a cotton gin on Friday last, says the Weldon News.

A panic smitten Boston paper says: "The fact that Dey droke yesterday is no evidence that Time is bankrupt," How does it account or the widely spread rumor. "We take no note of time?" Isn't the old fellow's paper good?

It may be of interest to our bachelor readers to know that Miss R. Shields, of Halifax, received the first premium at the Weldon Fair for the best shirt made for a gentleman.

LIVER ADVERTISEMENTS.—A medicine that has done more than all the prescriptions of the pharmacopeia to protect the human system against the bodily ills superinduced by unhealthy surroundings, is certainly worthy of universal confidence. It is mainly on account of its extraordinary preventive properties that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is so exceedingly popular in localities subject to the visitation of miasmatic fevers and other diseases produced by empoisoned air. A family that has escaped sickness during a sickly season in consequence of using the Bitters as a safeguard, is a living advertisement of the virtues of the preparation. The whole neighborhood realize the fact. "I couldn't have believed it," says one, "scarcely credited the advertisements—but one must believe what one sees," says another. It is the very thing we need in this unwholesome section of country," remarks a third. And the result is that the instinct of self-defence, the first law of nature, induces three-fourths of that community to obtain a supply of the great vegetable antidote before the next sickly season is in. In winter, when the system requires extra vigor and elasticity to enable it to baffle the effects of damp and cold, the Bitters will be found particularly serviceable. Rheumatism will not be apt to fasten upon muscles and nerves that have been braced up by this excellent invigorant and nervine; nor will the severities of the season, which have such a disastrous effect on the pulmonary organs of the feeble and delicate, be likely to exercise the same untoward influences, in cases where the stomach and the external surface of the body (which always sympathizes with the digestive organs) have been toned and stimulated by a course of the restorative. The ills of indigestion and irregularities of the bowels which proceed from sudden changes of weather may always be averted by a timely use of the bitters.

Beware of Counterfeits!

JOB MOSES' SIR JAMES CLARKE'S SCARLET PILLS

Are extensively counterfeited. Dishonest Druggists endeavor to sell the counterfeit, as it is more profitable, the genuine have the name of Job Moses on each package. All others are worthless. The genuine Pills are unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. They moderate all excesses and cure all suppression of the menses when caused by cold, inflammation, or disease. In all cases of Nervous and Sexual Affections, Pains in the Back and Loins, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the heart, Hysterics and Whites, they will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and although very powerful, contain nothing hurtful to the most delicate constitution.

Counter in English German and French around each bottle gives full direction and advice.

The GENUINE Pills are sold at most drug stores, but if your druggist cannot supply them GENUINE, do not be persuaded to accept any counterfeit or bogus article but send One Dollar to the sole proprietor, Job Moses, 18 Cortlandt Street, New York, by express or post office at which you will call for the package, and a bottle of the genuine Pills securely and safely packed in plain wrappers will be sent by return express.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL. Absolutely safe. Perfectly odorless. Always uniform. Illuminating qualities superior to gas. Burns in any lamp without danger of exploding or taking fire. Manufactured expressly to displace the use of volatile and dangerous oils. Its safety under every possible test, and its perfect burning qualities, are proved by its continued use in over 300,000 families. Millions of gallons have been sold and no accident—directly or indirectly—has ever occurred from burning, storing or handling it.

The immense yearly loss of life and property, resulting from the use of cheap and dangerous oils in the United States, is appalling.

The Insurance Companies and fire Commissioners throughout the country recommend the ASTRAL as the best safe-guard when lamps are used. Send for circular.

For sale at retail by the trade, generally and at wholesale by the proprietors, CHAS. PRATT & CO., 127 Fulton Street, New York. 10-6.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwill's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORROEA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cent. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

BY HIS EXCELENCY, THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Executive Department, Raleigh, Oct. 22, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bounteously of all the products of its soil, so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward from his labor, and every class of our population has prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restored in our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine, has visited our State. Now therefore, as it becomes us, a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showed upon us in His great mercy; I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1873.

as a day of public Thanggiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on said day and to exhort their congregations to humble themselves before the throne of the ever-living God, and render unto Him praises which are justly due, invoking for themselves, their State and their whole country, His guidance and protection throughout all time to come.

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord, let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation."

"Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

Done at the city of Raleigh, on this the 22d day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three and in the ninety-eight year of American Independence.

Bradley's PATENT ENAMEL Paint.

MADE FROM

PURE WHITE LEAD, OIL & ZINC, Chemically Combined.

Will last three times as long as the best Lead and oil mixed in the ordinary way.

Always ready for use. Sold by the gallon

One Gallon covers Twenty square yards two coats.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

FROM PROF. W. G. SIMMONS

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4th, 1873.

MR. C. W. KNIGHT,

Dear Sir—We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building and are well pleased with it. Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work yet we have a good job We shall continue to use it—believing that in point of economy, durability, and facility of application it is superior to any other pigment offered in the market. Very Respectfully, W. G. SIMMONS.

DAMESTOWN, Montgomery County, Md., October 6th, 1873.

MR. KNIGHT, Sole Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint,

Dear Sir—I received your favor of the 3rd inst., asking my opinion of the Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint, for which you are Agent.

It affords me pleasure to add my testimony with many others, of its value and thorough adaptation to the rural Districts especially. Having a practical experience of thirty years, in preparing plans and building with all branches of artisans and mechanics, and used most of the material for painting. I was induced to try "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," owing to its portability, being mixed of all shades, and guarantees to suit, I applied it for inside and outside work and found it dried thoroughly, covered the surface perfect, and dried with a beautiful Enamel Luster and covered 20 square yards two coats, I have recommended its use to others in the City of Washington and lower Maryland, with equal satisfaction and good results. Milling colors by ordinary mechanics is not often done to the satisfaction of "Proprietors" and "Paint" being "already mixed" all desired shades, and frequently to suit, renders it more desirable in Rural Districts. I cheerfully recommend it in general use and feel assured that all who use it will be satisfied that it is all that is claimed "Durable, Beautiful and Economical.

Yours respectfully, JNO. L. DU TRIF.

BALTIMORE, December 10th 1872.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT—DEAR SIR: It affords me much pleasure to say to you that the Bradley Patent Enamel Paint far exceeds my expectation in economy and beauty, and I have every reason to believe, in durability. More than twelve months since, I painted the roof of my Hotel (Mansion House) with the Bradly Patent Enamel Paint, and I was so well pleased with it, I determined to paint the outside of the House, and am most happy to state it gives me perfect satisfaction. In conclusion I will say, if this testimonial will be of any advantage to you, you are at liberty to use it.

Yours, most respectfully, ISAAC ALBERTSON, Mansion House Hotel, N.W. Cor. Fayette and St., Paul Streets, Baltimore.

From Hon. JOHN WETHERED.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT: At the recommendation of a friend, I was induce to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is free from disagreeable odor. Yours, Respectfully JOHN WETHERED

THE PLAINS, Fauquier county, Va., Feb 1878.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT, Sir: The paint came safely to hand as ordered—two 8 gal. five gallons each, and three bucket, one gallon each. As I action was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamelled the harnes and boot ... mony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as Testimonials, but I feel forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it be desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of the letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

PLEASANTVILLE Hartfort county, Maryland February 26th, 1873.

MR. C. P. KNIGHT—Dear Sir; I am very happy to inform you that your Patent Enamel Paint has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any other Paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty, paramount to any other.

Very respectfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

ARE JUST OPEN

Gentle Words to Horses.

The ridiculously loud tone of voice in which orders are generally given to horses on the driver desires them to start or stop, has often been a subject of surprise to me. If horses were next things to deaf, there would be an excuse for the shoutings and yellings so generally indulged, but they are not, and therefore need not be spoken to so loudly and harshly. The ear of a horse is very sensitive, and even in exceptional cases it is possible to control his motions by a command given in a moderate tone of voice, as readily and indeed, I think more surely than a louder, harsher one is used.

A horse is a reasonable animal, and is always affected by a kind treatment. The fact of the matter is, that if kind words and gentle treatment throughout were given these noble animals, instead of oaths, curses and blows, we should find their docility greatly increased. Just imagine if you will, a good or whoa! uttered in a tone sufficiently loud to be heard at a half mile's distance, and this command given to an animal within five or ten feet of the party giving it. Wherein consists the necessity for it? Why not resort to more rational, and infinitely more pleasing means? This is all that is required. The horse, if not deaf, will hear it, and will as readily obey it if given in thundering tones.

One of the best managed teams I have ever seen was controlled by the driver without the indulgence of any of this unmusical yelling. The driver rarely ever raised above his ordinary tone of voice, and yet his horses laid into their work with as much willingness, and apparent pleasure or earnestness then if they had been driven to it by fearful shouts and blows. Let me appeal to the common sense of your readers in this particular direction. None of the brute creation more readily appreciate kind words and kind treatment. Such facts should be considered always by those who have the care of these animals.—Exchange.

Cultivation of Small Fruit.

In small fruits, the failure to cultivate, and to cultivate thoroughly, is to fail of getting and return for the planting. All growers and planters of strawberries and raspberries understand this, but all do not act upon it, but those who do astonish us with their results, and we are apt to conclude that if their plants are not a shade different, their soil at least is, and to this the success is at once attributed. We, of course, admit a difference in soil but not to such an extent as may suppose there exists. The result can be wonderfully varied by good or indifferent care.

We know of a plantation of Doolittle raspberries that were set out three years ago, and when two years old, a portion of the ground was sold, and a dividing line was drawn across the raspberry rows; the parts of rows remaining to the original planted received the usual thorough and timely culture, while those parts of some rows falling to the new purchaser were almost entirely neglected, and no difference in appearance of the plants so great that no one would suppose that they were all planted at the same time, and of the same variety. But still a greater difference was visible the past season in the crop of two patches, the cultivated end of the patch having ten times as much fruit as the other that was poorly cultivated.

Gorged Stomachs in Horses

Gorged stomachs, or acute indigestion, is a disease which every year destroys a great many valuable horses. It consists of the indistension of the stomach from food or from gas generated by the fermentation of its undigested contents.

This very serious disorder often results from giving food in large quantities and immediately subjecting the animal to hard or fast work. This is a very common thing among farmer's horses. A journey of fifteen or twenty miles has to be performed; the owner, through kindness gives an extra quantity of food; the stomach and bowels are overloaded; the horse pursues his journey full of spirit, and, after traveling a few miles, he becomes dull and sluggish and sweats freely; he is pulled up, and after standing a few moments, shows signs of abdominal pains by cringing the body and attempting to lie down; the flanks are slightly swollen. In a few moments he seems easier, and is driven slow and then showing signs of pain; finally he reaches his destination, and is taken out of the harness, when he may exhibit very alarming symptoms.

Another common cause is feeding heavily when the stomach has been weakened through enervating exercise or long fasting.

In road horses that are highly fed on good hay, it is occasionally brought about by giving a quantity of green clover or oats immediately after performing a long journey.

Turnip Flavor in Milk and Butter.

A correspondent of the American Agriculturist states that last winter he fed cows in the usual way at milk time to his cows, until the milk and butter became so strong that it could not be used. He then commenced feeding immediately after milking and found that there was not a particle of turnip flavor in the milk or butter. After a time the taste returned. On investigation, he found that one of the cows was nearly dry, and was milked only once a day. She gave a pint of milk per day, so that mixed in the morning she could have but only about half a pint in her bag; this received so much taste from the turnips that it spoiled the milk of four other cows in full flow. To make the test complete, he had her milked twice a day when the difficulty at once ceased, and did not occur. Evidently a very small amount of milk in the udder will suffice to do the mischief, and if drying off cows are milked only once a day while on turnip feed, their milk should not be mixed with that from the rest of the herd.

Country Life Preferable.

Is this constant, never-ceasing twirl in the current of the city life! Will it always be so? Will the whirl, and bustle, and confusion always have such an attraction? As long as moths flutter around a candle, human moths will doubtless flutter around the light that the city extends. And yet how much sweeter and more attractive life in the country is! Especially is it to a woman. In the country, what ever her circumstances of fortune, woman finds that which is an imperative want of her nature—a refined home. In a city, if poor, she cannot escape, or shield her children from the noisy, vulgar life swarming around her; a tenement-lodging or the second-floor lodging-house only remain to her. But under a pure sky, in a balmy atmosphere, the humblest cottage nestling at the foot of the mountain, or under the shadow of one of our majestic elms, can be the fitted home, we will not say of a lady—the word is associated with vulgar pretensions—but of a gentle woman.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL

Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

EUREKA

VINEGAR BITTERS

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

If men will enjoy good health, let them use VINEGAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form.

DR. RADWAY'S

Sarsaparillian Resolvent

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES: SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE BODY UNDERGOES, UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other Fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney & Bladder Complaints,

Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

Tumor of 12 Years' Growth Cured by Radway's Resolvent.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE.

OF VALUABLE

NORTH CAROLINA LANDS,

FOR SALE BY

GEORGE D. POOL.

Real Estate Agent,

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorable with any where; and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility and durability of soil, no section can compete with it.

A railroad will soon be built to Norfolk, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

A farm of 700 acres in Pasquotank County 10 miles from town, with fine two story dwelling, large barn, kitchen and other outhouses; as also, two other dwellings, barns and other houses at different points on the farm. This farm is all cleared but 150 acres, is free from swamps and other waste land, and is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, &c. The price is 14,000 in easy payments.

A farm of 500 acres in Pasquotank County, 6 miles from town, and one mile from the River, with good new dwelling built in modern style, barn, stables, four tenant houses scattered over the farm, fine water, &c. This farm is situated on the most public road in the County, has 300 acres cleared and balance in splendid pine, oak, cypress, maple, sweet gum, and other valuable timber. It is peculiarly adapted to raising cotton, $50 per acre, but, having been realized on a part of it this year in cotton. It also grows corn, wheat, oats, and other crops well. Price $12,000 in easy payments.

A valuable vacant lot in the town of E. City containing a half square, on the principal street in the town immediately opposite Court House quare. Has an iron fence in front, fine shrubbery, and is near the large new Hotel justerected, Price $2,000 in easy payments.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Three farms—one of 100 acres, one of 80 acres and one of 190 acres, within two miles of town, mostly cleared land. Price $20 per acre for each tract—payments on easy terms. Also many other valuable farms and town lots too numerous to mention.

PROSPECTUS FOR 1874—SEVENTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE,

An illustrated Monthly Journal, universally admitted to be the Handsomest Periodical in the World. A Representative and Champion of American Taste.

Not for Sale in Book or News Stores.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscelany of pure, light and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures; the rarest specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with a similar class, THE ALDINE is an unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competion. In price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quality of line paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost, and then, there are the chromos, besides!

ART DEPARTMENT, 1874

The Illustrations of THE ALDINE have won a world wide reputation, and in the art centres of Europe it is an admitted fact that its wood cuts are examples of the highest perfection ever attained. The common prejudice in favor of "steel plates," is rapidly yielding to a more educated and discriminating taste which recognizes the advantages of superior artistic quality will greater facilities of production. The wood-cuts of THE ALDINE possesses all the delicacy and elaborate finish of the most costly steel plate, while they afford a better rendering of the artist's original.

To fully realize the wonderful work which THE ALDINE is doing for the cause of art culture in America, it is only necessary to consider the cost to the people of any other decent representations of the productions of great painters.

In addition to designs by the members of the National Academy, and other noted American artists, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest. Thus the subscriber to THE ALDINE will, at the trifling cost, enjoy in his own home the pleasures and refining influences of true art.

The quarterly tinted plates for 1874 will be by Thos. Moran and J. D. Woodward.

The Christmas issue for 1874 will contain special designs appropriate to the season, by our best artists, and will surpass in attractions any of its predecessors.

Premium for 1874.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE for the year 1874 will receive a pair of chromos. The original pictures were painted in oil for the publishers of THE ALDINE, by Thomas Moran, whose great Colorado picture was purchased by Congress for ten dollars. The subjects were chosen to represent "The East" and "The West." One is a view in The White Mountains, New Hampshire; the other gives The Cliffs of Green River, Wyoming Territory. The difference in the nature of the scenes themselves is a pleasing contrast, and affords a good display of the artist's scope and coloring. The chromos are each worked from thirty distinct plates, and are in size (12 x 16) and appearance exact the similies of the originals. The presentation of a worthy example of America's greatest landscape painter to the subscribers of THE ALDINE was a bold but peculiarly happy idea, and its successful realization is attested by the following testimonial, over the signature of Mr. Moran himself.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 20, 1873.

MESSRS. JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Gentlemen:—I am delighted with the proofs in color of your chromos. They are wonderfully successful representations by mechanical process of the original paintings.

Very respectfully,
(Signed) THOS. MORAN.

These chromos are in every sense American. They are by an original American process, with material manufacture, from designs of American scenery by an American printer, and presented to subscribers to the first successful American Art Journal. If no better because of all this, they will certainly possess an interest no foreign production can inspire and neither are they any worse if by reason of peculiar facilities of production they cost the publishers only a trifle, while equal in every respect to other chromos that are sold singly for double the subscription of THE ALDINE. Persons of taste will prize these pictures for themselves—not for the price they did or did not cost, and will appreciate the enterprize that renders their distribution possible.

If any subscriber should indicate a preference for a figure subject, the publishers will send "Thoughts of Home," a new and beautiful chromo, 14 x 20 inches representing a little Italian exile whose speaking eyes betray the longings of his heart.

TERMS.

$5 per annum, in advance, with Oil Chromo free.

For 50 cents extra, the chromos will be sent mounted, varnished and prepaid by mail.

THE ALDINE will, hereafter, be obtained only by subscription. There will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscriptions must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local canvasser, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, bearing the facsimile signature of JAMES SUTTON & Co.

Canvassers Wanted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

BANKRUPTCY.

THE FIFTY PER CENT CLAUSE.

As there seems to be a misunderstanding in regard to the effect of the provision of the Bankrupt Act, commonly called the 50 per cent clause, we publish the following extracts from the Act:

The second clause of the thirty-third section as amended by the Act of July 27, 1868, provides "that no discharge shall be granted to a debtor whose assets shall not be equal to fifty per cent. of the claims proved against his estate, after which he shall be liable as the principal debtor, unless the assent of writing of a majority in number and value of his creditors to whom shall have become liable as principal debtors, or who shall have proved their claims, filed in the case at or before the time of hearing upon the application for discharge.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled—that the provisions of the second clause of the thirty-third section of said act as amended by the first section of said act in amendment thereof, approved June 22, 1868, shall not apply to those debts incurred by the bankrupt seeks a discharge which were contracted prior to January 1st, 1869.

The true meaning is not that a bankrupt must be able to pay fifty per cent of his debts, before he can obtain a discharge, as many believe; but that his estate, in the hands of his assignee, at the time of the discharge must be equal, to fifty per cent. of the amount of the debts.

1. That he owes as principal;
2. That have been proved against him in bankruptcy; and
3. That he has contracted since the first day of December, 1868.

Or, if a majority in number and value of those who have proved their debts, to whom the bankrupt is indebted as principal, or who contracted subsequent to Dec., 31, 1868, consent in writing to the discharge—such bankrupt may be discharged forever from all his debts.

If a debtor, owing three thousand dollars principal, twenty-five hundred of which debtedness was contracted prior to January 1st, 1869, and five hundred subsequent to that time, files his petition in bankruptcy, and his creditors prove against him, and there are no assets in the hands of the assignee, the petitioner will be entitled to a discharge; but it will be a bar only to the debts contracted prior to January 1, 1869.—If no creditors prove their claims, discharge will be good against all debts, whether contracted before or after January 1st, 1869.

The practical effect in bankruptcy cases generally is, that creditors fail to prove their claims, finding it ordinarily unprofitable. The estate has, in a large majority of instances, been exhausted in the trouble and expense of making it productive without receiving any return. The fifty per cent. bugbear, therefore when viewed in the light of the law and common-sense, disappears.

EXEMPTIONS IN BANKRUPTCY.

The exemptions under the 14th section of the Bankrupt Act are as follows:

1. Household and Kitchen furniture not to amount not exceeding $500,00.
2. Wearing apparel of Bankrupt and family.
3. Uniform, &c., if he has been an officer in the United States Army.
4. Personal property of the value of $250 to be selected by the Bankrupt.
5. A Homestead and the dwelling and buildings used therewith, not exceeding in value the sum of $1000,00; or in lieu thereof, any lot in any city, town or village not exceeding in value the sum of $1000,000.
6. The reversionary interest in the Homestead lands.

In laying off the Exemptions in some Districts, the Assignees are ordered to accept and abide by, any assignment of a homestead which has been made by a Sheriff under the State laws; or which has been assigned upon the application of a debtor in accordance with the laws of North Carolina. Where no such assignment of homestead has been made, the assignee will proceed to set apart such homestead, and make the other exemptions agreeable to the rules of the bankrupt Court.

The report of such exemptions when made by the assignee can be excepted to by the bankrupt or by any creditor, within twenty days after the allotment of such exempt property.

EFFECT OF THE DISCHARGE IN BANKRUPTCY UPON JUDGMENT.

It is the opinion of many of our best lawyers that the discharge in bankruptcy, discharges judgment debts existing against the bankrupt at the time of filing his petition, and that therefore the liens existing by virtue of such judgments, upon homesteads are wiped out and cannot afterwards be enforced. It is clear that the practical effect of the discharge is to leave a man, whose homestead was encumbered by judgments, free from all his debts, of every nature, and the owner in fee simple of such homestead.

Again many lawyers, equally prominent in the profession, are of opinion that such will not be the effect of the discharge. That the homestead, will still be liable
